

PENTABUS

The Jerwood Writer in Residence Bursary

'I WROTE. I wrote so much. Because Pentabus gave me that time and space to just scribble away, and I can never thank them enough for that. They made me realise what I want to write and why I want to write it.'

Tim Foley, 2016/17 Writer in Residence and Bruntwood Award Winner 2017, Bruntwood Judges Prize for Electric Rosary Winner, and recently UK toured Driftwood.

Pentabus are looking for an emerging theatre artist to become our first Jerwood Writer in Residence.

As a recipient of the Channel Four Writer in Residence Bursary for three years in a row, an unprecedented achievement. In 2018, they were awarded a grant from the Clive Richards Foundation to continue to support a Writer In Residence Bursary for four years. Now Pentabus are delighted to have received a Writer in Residency Bursary from the Jerwood Foundation for the first time. Previous recipients of the Writer in Residence Bursary include Sophie Ellerby, Tom Powell, and Florence Espeut-Nickless.

The Bursary supports a professional playwright in the early stage of their career, giving the recipient the opportunity to spend up to a year at our base in Ludlow in South Shropshire. During their time with Pentabus, the recipient will write at least one new full length play or piece of theatre.

About Pentabus:

'One of the most important theatre companies in the country, where it has led, other new writing theatres – such as the Royal Court – have followed' The Telegraph

Pentabus is the nation's rural theatre company. We are the only professional theatre company in the UK whose vision is singularly rural. We tour new plays about the contemporary rural world to new audiences in village halls, fields, festivals and theatres, telling stories with local relevance, plus national and international impact.

We believe that every person living in an isolated rural community has a right to exceptional theatre. We are based in The Assembly Rooms in the heart of Ludlow in rural Shropshire. It then tours village halls and theatres locally and nationally. Over four and a half decades we've produced 173 new plays, reached over half a million audience members, won a prestigious South Bank Show award, a Fringe First and were the first to live stream from a village hall. We have hosted a writer in residence since 2014 and they have gone on to be commissioned by the Royal Court, Birmingham Rep, Royal Welsh College, Nottingham Playhouse and the Bush.

We are a champion for rural young people aged 16 to 25 and Pentabus Young Company is our programme offering workshops, masterclasses, work experience and mentorships, as well as the opportunity to join our Young Writers' Group, which has been running for seven years. Previous participants of the Young Writers' Group have had their work presented at Ludlow Fringe, Latitude Festival and Hereford Courtyard. It is a springboard into further study and the arts industry.

About the Residency:

'It's life-changing. It's time. It's support and expertise. And it's money. The pandemic has presented its own challenges but Pentabus have been supportive and considerate. The CRF Residency offers a different way of doing things and a different way of thinking – it's changing my work, and it's changed my life.'

Tom Powell, Writer in Residence 2020/21

The Jerwood Writer in Residence Bursary is an opportunity for an emerging writer to become a part of the Pentabus family.

What the Writer in Residence Bursary will give to you:

- The time and space to think and write. You will have a studio at Pentabus HQ, at The Ludlow Assembly Rooms in the heart of the beautiful town of Ludlow.
- The opportunity to complete at least one full-length play or several works in progress. This work must not have been commissioned by another company. Your writing time will be largely unrestricted and you can write about anything.
- Professional dramaturgical feedback on your work. Our Artistic Director will be available to discuss your ideas, and help you to work through any dramaturgical issues or queries that you might have.
- The opportunity to have your script or idea workshopped with Pentabus artists.
- A launch pad into the wider theatre community. You will be invited to attend Pentabus events, see shows as a representative of the company, and take part in industry activities with company members.
- The opportunity to tutor our Pentabus Young Company and our Writers Group (the next generation of aspiring writers and theatre makers aged 16 to 25). You will develop and lead workshops for our Young Writers both at Pentabus HQ and in other venues nationwide.
- The opportunity to observe the work of the company. You will attend rehearsals, dress rehearsals and other performances, gaining hands on experience of small-scale touring.

What you will give to Pentabus:

- Reading and offering constructive criticism on scripts sent to us.
- Attending workshops and rehearsals of work in production
- Assisting our Artistic Director, with artistic planning and being an active part of planning the creative future of the company.
- Engaging with rural communities to better understand them and our mission
- Lending an objective artistic voice to our day to day operations
- Advocating for us in the wider writing/theatre community
- Being a mentor for our Young Company Writers, and taking part in planning Young Company activity.

Overview:

- You will be given a bursary of £12,000 to support you for 12 months.
- You will commit to living in Ludlow for at least 6 months of this time..
- Any additional work you do for Pentabus outside of the Bursary requirements will be recompensed at ITC rates.
- You will be required to submit two reports to Pentabus for the Jerwood Foundation for the generous supporters of the Writer In Residence Bursary.

- The Bursary is designed to cover living costs in order to allow the Writer In Residence to focus on their work.

Who is Eligible to Apply:

'This is an incredible opportunity if you are in need of time and space to develop your writing. The residency has afforded me the time to THINK BIG. This bursary is a chance for you to challenge yourself and feel supported in the process. Apply now!'

Sophie Ellerby, CSRC Writer In Residence 2018/19

We are looking for committed, enthusiastic and exceptionally talented writers and theatre makers in the early stages of their career. You MUST have a passion for theatre and a strong interest in the wider theatre industry.

You may have a relevant degree in Literature, Creative Writing, Theatre Studies, or commensurate experience in professional theatre. Ideally, applicants would either have an agent, or have completed an Emerging Writers' or Artists' programme (i.e Orange Tree Writers Collective, REP Foundry, Royal Exchange Young Company etc) or have had a production of their work professionally produced, either in a Fringe, Rural Touring or Studio theatre setting.

We will accept applications from those who have applied to the bursary before – just tell us why you are applying again and send us a different example of your writing if you were previously longlisted.

Although we are based in a small rural town, you do not need to be able to drive in order to apply. We can help you to get around as needed for the role.

Applicants must be over 18 years of age.

How to Apply & Deadlines:

Fill in an application form on the Pentabus website. You can find this on the Writer in Residence Applications page of the website.

You MUST complete all sections of the application form and equal opportunities monitoring form, and ensure you also upload the following:

- A copy of a full length play that you've written. Ideally, we'd like to read plays that have had a professional reading or production. NB This play will not be read unless you are longlisted. Please provide details of the production or reading with the play.
- A current writer's CV or Biog.

If you have any additional access requirements that we can support you with in order to make an application then please email projects@pentabus.co.uk.

- Applications must be received by Monday 22 July 2024 at 9am
- Shortlist Interviews 1 – Online week of 7th November
- Shortlist Interviews 2 – In person at Pentabus week of the 14 November
- The Jerwood Writer in Residence is to begin their residency from December 2024.
